FORMER LOCAL MAN OVERCOME BY STRANGE GAS

Edgar D. Woods of Chicago, Ill., a brother of Fred L. and Clayton Wood of this city and a native of Portsmouth, met with a strange and frightful experience a few days ago in his men were overcome with strange gas. Mr. Woods runs a barber shop and bathhouse at 210 S. Clark street in that city and last Friday evening a moment after the proprietor had greeted a customer he moved to the rear shop and thence into the bathhouse when he was overcome and as the patron stepped in the latter met a strange sight which was momentarily paralyzing. There was a man unconscious over a chair and at his feet lay a colored parley and two white men. The stranger, recovering his composure somewhat looked into the bathtub. There in the water with his clothes on lay Wood, whom he had seen in the front part of the barber shop a moment before and the stranger began to think his senses were playing a trick on him. Jumping outside he informed the police who at once dragged the victims out on the sidewalk and with the help of passers-by tried to revive them and as soon as possible the victims of the gas were sent to the hospital, where Wood's condition and that of the negro porter were said to be critical and they manifested strange symptoms. In conscious moments they alternately laughed and cried and then acted hysterically.

The chief of the fire department and several of his men answered a summons and the representative of the sewer department. Protected by gas helmets they went to the barber shop which was filled more and more with the odor of gas and the gas getting so thick the police officers ordered guests at the Loyal hotel, up stairs, to evacuate the building for a time, as they thought as repairs in the building had been going on perhaps sewer gas had caused the havoc. Then the chief of the fire department found that a small pipe had been installed for ventilation which was very poor in the basement. He thought that possibly it had failed to work, that the oxygen in the place had been used up and the foul air had caused the damage, but he was not sure and no one was sure. The physicians at the hospital would not hazard a guess as to just what was the cause as it seemed very obscure. The aged proprietor, his barbers or their patrons could not solve the riddle in their lucid moments. All they knew was that they suddenly fell ill.

POLICE GET MAN RAISING $2 BILLS TO LOOK LIKE $10

Officers Fear Phony Money in Circulation in Dover.

The first arrest for this work was made at a place of entertainment where George Kanelopoulos passed the phony bill on a ticket seller who later discovered that he was a victim of the game. The police believe that some one has been in Dover selling the figures 10 which are passed neatly over the 2.

Kanelopoulos was held in the sum of $3000 for the superior court.

He claims he found the package of figures on the street. He had ten figures on his person when arrested.

Wirthmor and Welworth Waists
—After a very careful investigation we have arranged to distribute these two nationally-known and nationally favored lines of Waists in this city. Before deciding on this step we learned the Wirthmor and Welworth Waists were being handled by many of the best stores in America; that they had attained through their unvarying excellence a nation-wide popularity; that because of the unique Wirthmor Plan under which they are made and sold that they always represented the highest possible standard of value in popular price blouses, and further because of this very unusual method of making and selling Waists we would be able to show the new and wanted styles first, in many instances long in advance of their appearance in the market generally.
These are America's only known priced Waists, and they are sold at the same low prices (the nation over).

PLEADS HARD FOR MONEY FOR NAVAL AVIATION

Washington, June 18.—Hearings on the annual naval appropriation bill were begun today by the Senate Naval Committee with naval officials prepared to renew their arguments for increased appropriations for naval aviation operations and other activities.

Rear Admiral McLean, acting chief of operations, declared that unless an increased personnel is authorized radical changes in the department's plans for peace time organization of the fleet would be necessary.

"The Department has planned," he said, "to keep 25 battleships in full commission, 25 cruisers, 162 destroyers, 130 submarines, 12 gunboats, 54 mine sweepers, 20 sub-chasers and 100 miscellaneous craft. Approximately 100,000 men would be needed to man these ships alone."

"Our figures of 250,000 to Oct. 1, 1920, to Jan. 1, were based on what we considered the minimum requirement. Any reduction will decrease the efficiency of the Navy."

"The wear and tear on the ships has been heavy," the admiral said, objecting to the use of battleships as transports. "They have been worked continuously at their limit of speed or endurance and sometimes they have been forced to go beyond their limit. It will cost considerable to repair them."

PRESSMEN'S OFFICIAL SUED

Atlantic City, N. J., June 19.—Mal George L. Berry, international president of the Pressmen's Union, was Wednesday night served with papers in a suit brought by the Chicago Printing Pressmen's Union, asking that he and his associates in the management of the union be restrained from transacting its business and asking for a receiver. The suit is returnable in the United States court in Chattanooga, Tenn., on Saturday.

William L. Haas, the chief complainant, charges that funds of the union to the amount of $187,000 have been misused. Haas, who was accompanied by James L. Bagley when the papers were served, declared that the suit would prevent the international union from carrying out its program of revoking the charter of the Franklin Union of New York city, of which Bagley is president, or interfering with any other union.

Mal Berry said last night that the suit is part of a fight set up by Bagley in an attempt to secure control of the union while he, Berry, was serving in the Army in France.

Your Troubles Never Happen in a Hot Spot Chalmers

A STRANGER wrote the other day he had taken his Hot Spot Chalmers to a garage for the first time since he bought it—and he had run it 22,121 miles! "It didn't need a thing except one three-minute adjustment," he added.

We get many letters like this; and we assign the lack of trouble in a Chalmers largely to Hot Spot and Ram's-horn.

Hot Spot "cracks up" the raw gas, converts it into a fine vapor that offers excellent combustion qualities.

Ram's-horn rushes it with a rapidity that is lightning-like to the cylinders, and when the spark plugs perform their function—you get power results beyond belief.

Not only power, but an amazing freedom from engine knocks, overheated engine, nerve-racking vibration, uncomfortable friction.

Many cars of today, still equipped with old-fashioned engines, permit raw gas to descend past the pistons into the crank case; and then follows trouble in more ways than one.

In this heavy-fuel-burning Chalmers of today your troubles never happen.

Come see this Chalmers which so many persons now credit with being one of the few great cars of the world.

Washington, June 19.—A motion by Senator Phelan, Democrat, California, to add a rider to the agricultural appropriation bill proposing exemption of beer and wine from war-time prohibition was tabled by the senate late today, 55 to 11.

Senator Phelan proposed suspension of senate rules barring his rider, which requires a two-thirds majority. He spoke briefly in support of limiting the war-time prohibition act to distilled spirits only, but no discussion came from prohibition advocates. When Senator Phelan concluded, Senator Gronna, Republican of North Dakota, in charge of the agricultural appropriation bill, moved to table Senator Phelan's motion, cutting off further debate.

GERMANY FEARS FOR THE WORSE

(By Associated Press)
Nothing official has yet become known as to what action the German government will take in regards to the peace terms which are being considered by the Peace Commission of the National Assembly at Weimar. There is a great difference of opinion among the members of the German cabinet on what are characterized the especially hard terms of the allies. It is asserted that the cabinet are opposed to signing the treaty, but they fear the rise of Bolshevism and the spirit of unrest which is ever ripe, should they refuse to sign. German newspapers take a dark view of the situation and predict the worse side of things for the country whether they sign or not. Those who are opposed to the signing let their indignation run on to the conditions armistice is allowed to lapse on Monday and resumption of hostilities if the day of next week.

While there is nowhere any indication the American, British and French troops that there will be any fighting, armies will be prepared for any emergencies and they will enter Germany in battle formation prepared to meet any condition that might arise. The German Chancellor in addressing the Peace Conference of the Weimar assembly admitted that the assembly is confronted with a most important question and he urged them to approach it with an open mind.

With President Wilson in Belgium and Premier Lloyd George in Verdun and other battlefield centers, there was no work by the Council of Four, but the commissioners were at work on the Austrian terms.

Released Spartacists and Communist prisoners, made an attempt to force their way into the castle in which the government officials are housed, but they were repulsed. It is thought they were going to seize the prominent government officials now there.

Landlords Unjustly Condemned.

A Boston paper says that one inevitable effect of present conditions must be to reduce the size of the living quarters of the average family. This, if so, is due to increase in rents, but just why this should drive people into smaller houses and tenements is not easy to understand. People who are working, whether at skilled or unskilled labor, are receiving wages enough larger than they formerly were to offset the advance in rents and the other costs of living and there is no reason why they should not live in as good houses as they ever did. They can no more expect to do this at the old rates than they can expect to buy food and clothing at pre-war prices, but they are earning enough money to pay the increase without undue hardship. Consequently the outcry against increase in rentals, shouting about "profiteering," etc., is entirely out of order.

People who do not own houses have little idea of the increase there has been in the cost of upkeep. Materials of all kinds have practically doubled in cost and the cost of labor has nearly doubled everywhere, and has actually doubled in some places. Taxes are higher and gradually mounting and men who rent houses and tenements must get more or turn the keys in the locks. There is no alternative.

Many harsh things have been said in connection with this matter by people who do not understand the facts in the case, merely because they have given attention to only one side of it. The fact that rents have gone up is the only thing they consider. They do not stop to reflect that paper hangers and other mechanics such as are employed on houses are getting from $4 to $6 a day of eight hours, and that the average workman never "pads" the time. On the contrary, the actual working time is nearer seven-and-a-half hours. These conditions the property owner has to stand and there is only one way in which he can save himself from loss; that is by raising rents to a point that will correspond to the conditions, which is entirely justifiable. In fact, it is compulsory if the owners of renting property are not to be driven into bankruptcy.

The Boston paper says many families in that city are moving from larger into smaller tenements because of increased rentals. That may be so in Boston, but in most cities and towns the drift is right in the other direction, increased wages enabling most working people to live better than they ever lived before, notwithstanding the increased cost.

The average landlord is not a profiteer. He is satisfied with a reasonable return on his investment and is asking no more. Those who live in rented houses ought to understand that rents should remain at the old figures while wages are doubling and everything else is going up in proportion. If this were more generally understood there would be less shouting about rent profiteering, of which there have probably been some individual cases, but which is not general by any means. Those who think it is should invest in homes, a step which would speedily enable them to see a great light.

The people served by the sections of the Portsmouth Street Railway which the company proposed to abandon will be glad to know that operation is not to cease, for the present at least. This is the decree of the Public Service Commission. But a railway company cannot do business forever at a loss, and the final outcome in this case is for the future to disclose.

The Jewish people of the city have expressed themselves emphatically with reference to the alleged persecution of their race in Poland. There seems to be some question about the real conditions there, but if they are half as bad as represented there is ample ground for worldwide protest and immediate and drastic action.

The New York Legislature has ratified the suffrage amendment unanimously. It also ratified the prohibition amendment, though not without some opposition. The Empire State seems disposed to keep up with the procession.

The 14th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill has been duly and appropriately celebrated and the good people of Boston have a renewed consciousness of the fact, or superstition, that they live at the Hub of the Universe.

The navy is to be divided into two fleets, one to patrol the Atlantic and the other the Pacific. It is to be hoped they will be called to no sterner duty for many long years to come.

Almost time to get out the mowing machine and take down the scythe from the old apple tree where it has hung since last summer.

The sparring partners of Jess Willard are leading the strenuous life these days, according to daily advices from Toledo.

Mexico makes a good subject for the American military forces to "faper off" on.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

An Anniversary of Note
 (From the New York Sun)
 Irishmen, and particularly those of Galway, used to boast that they were born "the night of the big wind." On the centennial of the celebrated event some young men of Galway will be saying that their natal day was "the Sunday Alcock flew in."

A Practical Illustration
 (From the New York Herald)
 Of the proposed League of Nations were in operation Secretary of War Baker could not send United States troops across the border into Mexico to protect American property and preserve order without first referring the matter to the League through its headquarters at Geneva, Switzerland.

Will High Wages End War?
 (From the Springfield Republican)
 Under militarism, or conscription, the German common soldier was paid 7-12 cents a day. As a volunteer in Herr Nueke's army he now gets from $1.50 to $2 a day. If the volunteer system is maintained, it will be impossible to recruit big armies on account of the expense.

The Unruly Member
 (From the Springfield Republican)
 Verbosity has had much to answer for, yet now comes a German Socialist leader claiming that Germany's misfortunes are all due to the verbosity of William II. Mr. Roosevelt was once asked what he thought of the Kaiser. "He talks too much," was the answer.

The Mexican Way
 (From the Philadelphia Record)
 We wish the Mexican insurgents would take a change of venue. Why do all efforts to overthrow the Government begin, not at the capital but along the American border? If the insurgents would not play so near the edge the balls would not go out of bounds. In all other countries insurgents try to capture the seat of Government, to drive the ruling officials away from the public offices; but in Mexico everything else is tried before that, and the towns on the Rio Grande are the first objects of the revolutionists.

Discouraging the Brigands
 (From the New York Evening Sun)
 The incident in which two bank messengers defeated a gang of foot-pads and shot one of them in very wholesome and encouraging. One reason why we have had so many hold-ups of late is that the marauders thought they were playing a safe game. A bullet between the ribs is an excellent argument to the contrary.

Also salutary is the arrest, after a considerable time, of the leading figure in the Brooklyn savings bank robbery. This unconsiderable incident is now headed straight for the electric chair. Not unlikely his arrest may lead to the capture and punishment of his accomplices. The proof that the arm of the police is long and that crime is not speedily forgotten will doubtless damp the ardor of other would-be birds of prey.

Special reasons exist for the somewhat unusual amount of daring crime now prevalent. The disturbance of minds among men not safely moored in the social sense and lack of employment in many cases tend to turn a certain number of the victims into reckless courages. This condition is clearly recognized. The obvious reaction is special precaution among all citizens.

It is absurd to rely on the police altogether. They cannot be everywhere, always. Their work should be supported by private measures. Extra care in protecting property, extra guardianship of it when exposed, keeping temptations under cover and creating a widespread understanding that manumission attempts will assuredly be repelled with vigor, will very rapidly dampen the courage and enterprise of the apprentice in crime and often, indeed, of the hardened offender.

At bottom, these wretches are as concerned for their own safety as any honest man. They will only take a chance when the chance seems to be a specially good one of "getting away with the goods."

A Word to American "Welchers"
 (From the New York Herald)
 When some tender-hearted soul spoke to Pascal about the necessity of treating criminals humanely, the good Christian and good philosopher retorted with the question, "Why don't the newsmen begin?"

tion in the discredited language still is!

On page 106 of the English translation of the same instructive volume the soldier-theorist says: "France must be so completely crushed that she can never again come across our (German) path."

That meant the destruction of a race, root and branch—according to a policy of thoroughness.

For fear that there might be any doubt as to his theory the general amplified it on page 105: "This time we must resolve on an absolute conquest in order to capture the French naval ports and destroy the French naval depots. It would be a war to the knife with France; one which would, if victorious, annihilate the French people as a great power."

With her characteristic bad sportsmanship Germany bet on what she thought was a sure thing, and lost. Now she wants to welch, and there are soft-headed and soft-hearted persons who would let her do so. Yet if she had won she would have collected to the uttermost farthing.

More Blame for the Consumer

(From the New York World)
 Consumers are generally to blame for all high prices and scarcity of commodities, but it is a new note to have them indicted for keeping prices down and not playing fair with dealers. This action to be the gist of the complaint of the Retail Meat Dealers' Association, which alleges that they are not buying the right kinds of meat; that consumers "who in normal times treat themselves to the best quality of pork, beef and mutton" are still continuing to conserve, although "the necessity for conservation no longer exists," while another group of the population "is buying only those sorts of meat which can be cooked easily and quickly."

The butchers are hard to please. A little while ago the public was at With characteristic bad sportsmanship and now it is to blame for buying the cheaper grades. But it is apparent that the habit of conservation adopted graciously and practiced for patriotic motives is destined to exercise a growing influence on the price of beef as well as of other food.

Many a family then made the discovery for the first time that there were other kinds of meat besides partridge steaks and that the cheaper grades properly prepared were quite as palatable as the dearer. The result is likely to be that economies instituted by necessity as a war measure will be continued, to the direct benefit of household incomes, which have other costs of living to meet. The condition is one with which meat packers and dealers will have to reckon as the most powerful argument for lower prices.

CLIP COUPONS ON YOUR LIBERTY BONDS

Uncle Sam has on hand approximately $40,000,000 which he owes to Liberty bondholders who have not clipped the coupons on their bonds. Look at your bonds today. If they have a coupon or coupons the payable date on which has been reached, clip it and take it to the bank for payment. Any bank will cash such a coupon without discount. It is worth its full face value. Best of all, convert it into a war savings stamp. But do not let any one try to buy it from you at a discount. Uncle Sam is on the trail of the sharpers who have been robbing people of their Liberty bonds—not robbing them by breaking into their homes, but by lying to them about their value and purchasing them at ridiculously low prices or exchanging worthless securities for them.

It is estimated that there are 20,000,000 individual holders of the various Liberty Loan bonds which were sold to pay for our victory. Of these, at least 19,000,000 never owned a bond before.

Uncle Sam's suggestions to his 20,000,000 bondholders may be summed up about as follows:

Clip your coupons when they are due.

Convert your coupons into War Savings stamps. If you feel you must have the money, cash the coupons at the bank.

Don't sell your bonds. If you need money, take your bond to a bank and borrow money on it as collateral. A bank should always be willing to loan you 90 per cent of the face value of the bond. In that way you remain the owner of the bond, and it will be returned to you when you pay the loan.

If you must sell your bond, be careful to go to a reputable banker. He will not charge you more than 50 cents commission to sell a $50 bond or $1 for a $100 bond. He will also pay you the full market value.

NAME MOUNTAIN AS A MEMORIAL TO ROOSEVELT

New York, June 15.—Announcement was made today by the Roosevelt Memorial Association that on July 4 the Black Hills Pioneer would honor the memory of the dead ex-president by naming for him the highest peak in the Black Hills. Thru to take place during the coming week for Deadwood and other Black Hills communities, this ceremony will be a manifestation of the affection which all the residents of that section of the country felt for Colonel Roosevelt.

"On that day," Captain Seth Hullock wrote to the Roosevelt Memorial Association, "throughout the entire northwest the people will carry in their minds a thought of what the Colonel was and what he represented in the life of this country."

The peak which is to be known as Mount Theodore Roosevelt is now known as Sheep Mountain or Round Top. It is a detached eminence with an elevation of 9,600 feet, three miles from Deadwood, fifteen miles from Wyoming and thirty-five miles from the Montana state line. It is on the Black Hills Forest Reserve, and will be the center of a bird and game refuge also, dedicated to the memory of the ex-president.

All that section of the country has been intimately associated with various periods in the life of Colonel Roosevelt. The peak which is to bear his name overlooks the foothills and valleys of the northern Black Hills where the Colonel hunted buffalo. In sight from his summit are his cattle range and his trail to Deadwood, as well as sections of Wyoming and Montana where he trailed cattle in his cowboy days. Glaciers of the Belle Fourche, the Redwater and other streams flowing down the valleys attract the spectator. The peak and the territory around it are now embraced in the Belle Fourche irrigation project which Colonel Roosevelt advocated when President. This is making an arid prairie over into fertile farming country.

The people of Deadwood are now building at the summit of the mountain a cairn fifty feet high of boulders of native granite. T. A. Brown of Spearfish, one of the Colonel's associates of years ago, has obtained the permission of the local committee to place in this monument a stone with the cattle brands of his old friend inscribed thereon. The dedication of this monument will take place on Independence Day, when a tablet inscribed "In memory of Theodore Roosevelt, the American," will be fastened to one of the boulders. The Governor of South Dakota is expected to preside at the ceremony. General Leonard Wood will make an address, and there will be present state officials of Wyoming, Montana, Nebraska and South Dakota.

An automobile road is now being built to the top of the mountain from Deadwood. A new bridge path along a beautiful little creek will also give access to the mountain top and the memorial cairn.

WOULD SELL ARMY FOOD AT COST HERE

Washington, June 12.—Representative Fitzgerald informed Mayor Peters by telegraph Wednesday that he would be one of a group of men, the others to be obtained by the Mayor, to purchase and resell to the public at cost the great stores of food products which are to be auctioned by the War Department in Boston the latter part of this week.

Mr. Fitzgerald says 1,200,000 pounds of bacon in 12-pound cans, 50,000 pounds of roast beef in 10-pound cans, 8,000 pounds of corn in 6-pound cans and 100,000 pounds of corned beef in 2-pound cans are to be sold in Boston. He believes the general public should secure the advantage of the low prices which he thinks these products will bring at auction.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Pleased With the Job
 Officer Ethel Ryan of this city, one of the yeomen (F) corps recently transferred from the local navy yard to the Great Lakes Training station, reports herself as much pleased with the work and life in Chicago. Several men on duty at Portsmouth navy yard during the war are now assigned to duty at the station on the lakes.

Changing Schedule
 The running schedule of the yard ferry is being revised on account of the half-holiday which begins on Saturday next.

No Match for Dover
 The ship's team, so-called, from the U. S. Naval Prison, went down for the count on the diamond at Central Park on Wednesday, where the new Dover team took a fall out of them by a score of 7 to 0. Spectators say the navy men didn't have a look in.

Not Doing Much
 One laborer for the Industrial department is the only call made by the labor board office for the past four days.

Begins on Saturday
 The first half holiday for the season of 1919 begins on Saturday next ending on the same date in September.

Will Be in the Contest
 Arrangements have been made between the Athletic officer at the local yard and the local committee whereby several of the enlisted force from the yard will enter the athletic events to be held in Portsmouth on July 4.

Attending Exercises
 Thomas M. Osborne, commanding the naval prison, is attending the commencement exercises at Harvard.

217 Going Out for Good
 Seven men from the naval prison will be restored to full duty on Saturday and 217 will be dishonorably discharged.

For Red Cross Work
 William Harris of Brunswick has been appointed an assistant in Red Cross work and is attending to the office of Louis Howe.

LOST 13 SONS IN WAR

Paris, June 10 (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Thirteen sons killed on the field of battle, three discharged with grave injuries, one wounded four different times, the father and one daughter summarily shot by the Germans for going to Lille to celebrate the centennial of a relative and another daughter killed by a German shell at Dunkirk is the record of the family of M. Vanhee, a French farmer of Remagnies, near Ypres. M. Vanhee had thirty-three children, twenty-two sons and fourteen daughters, all of whom were living when the war broke out. One of his sons was killed at Ypres; he returned to France to fight, and was wounded in each of four different engagements. One of the sons lost both legs; another returned from the front blind and deaf, and another underwent the trepanning operation.

Why You Should Buy Coal Now

The price of coal is 75 per cent determined by wages. The wage agreement at the mines continues until April 1, 1920. The Fuel Administration reports that 35 per cent of the mines cannot make any money at the present mine prices. In view of this, how can coal be cheaper this year?

COMMITTEES ON THE KITTYRY CELEBRATION MEET

Plans for a Lively Day on the Fourth Going Along Good.

Kittery is putting a lot of enthusiasm in its plans for the celebration of the return of the boys from the world war, on the Fourth of July, and another large meeting of the committees was held in Armory Hall Wednesday evening.

The reports given showed that arrangements are going along splendidly for a very interesting day in honor of those who represented the town in the great struggle.

The day will open by the ringing of all the church bells at six o'clock. There will be a big parade from Hutchins Corner, Kittery Point, to Newmarket street, Kittery, in the forenoon, with sports, music and everything that the holiday can produce.

In the afternoon, there will be a big reception and banquet to the boys home on the Trip Academy grounds, with speaking and music appropriate to the occasion, and for this will be the center of attraction for the day, and the boys will be made to feel that Kittery appreciates their records.

In the evening, at Kittery Point, there will be the biggest display of fireworks that Kittery has ever had, just below the Kittery Point bridge, where the display may be seen to the best advantage from the surrounding fields and the opposite shore on the Kittery side. The Kittery Point bridge

EXPECT MORE BOMB OUTRAGES

Washington, June 19.—The menace of bomb outrages still hangs over the country. In the belief of officials of the department of justice, William J. Flynn, chief of the department's bureau of investigation, said Wednesday that he believed there were "more bombs to come," but said it was impossible to say when the next attempt to create a reign of terror by explosions might be made.

Supplementing Mr. Flynn's statement, the department tonight made public testimony of Attorney General Palmer before the house appropriations committee asking for a special fund of $500,000 to carry on the hunt for radicals. The attorney general told the committee, as the testimony revealed, that government officials had been advised of a day set for another attempt to "destroy the government at one fell swoop."

"We have received so many notices and gotten so much information," Mr. Palmer told the committee at his recent appearance, "that it has almost come to be accepted as a fact that on a certain day in the future which we have been advised of, there will be another serious and probably much larger effort of the same character which the wild fellows of this movement describe as revolution, a proposition to rise up and destroy the government at one fell swoop."

Mr. Flynn said he knew of no plot planned for independence day and emphasized that every precaution was being taken by police throughout the United States. He expressed the belief that eventually those involved in the recent outrages would be brought to justice.

"We know the source from which the bomb operators have come," Mr. Flynn said. "The agitation is purely domestic and has no foreign connection although there may be some foreigners active in it. It will take some time to clear up the cases but we are making progress."

EX-SOLDIER FACES TWO WIVES IN COURT.

Franklin, N. H., June 19.—Levi P. Florence was in Franklin Municipal court today charged with associations with Cynthia May Ash, the complainant, while married to Helen Donovan. County Solicitor Herbert W. Hinkle of Concord said that the complaint was practically bogus, but that charge could not be made in New Hampshire as the marriage of Florence and Miss Ash had taken place in Lawrence, Mass. He said that Massachusetts authorities would be notified.

Florence pleaded not guilty and waived a hearing. He was fixed at $300 for appearance at the October term of the Superior Court.

Both wives were in court and had a verbal battle after the session. Helen, the first wife, declaring the second wife was at fault for marrying Florence before she had ascertained that he had secured a divorce. The Penacook wife accused the Franklin wife of "running after him" before their marriage. The Franklin woman denied this. The Penacook wife said she could not believe her husband would be fool enough to marry one woman before he had secured a divorce from his first wife. Florence tried to have a talk with both women after court but failed to make much progress.

GREENLAND

Greenland, June 19.—The recent hold robbery at the home of Mrs. Anna Gray, who resides at Breakfast Hill, has been the principal topic of discussion of late in the village. The house was completely ransacked and a number of articles of value locked in two Saratoga trunks on the second floor were broken open. A dozen sterling silver teaspoons, two bed spreads, six glass bottles and silver castors were taken, besides staple articles from the kitchen closet.

The robbery is supposed to have happened one day recently while Mrs. Gray was in Portsmouth visiting her sister who was ill. At that time the neighbors noticed a large automobile standing in front of the house and a party of four were seen to come from the place, but at the time nothing was thought suspicious as a good many parties had been there to look over the place.

Games this week.
Thursday—P. A. G. vs. K. of C.
Friday—Navy Yard vs. Southery.

The sailors from the Receiving Ship Southery at the Navy Yard continued their winning streak in the Sunset League on Wednesday evening, when they disposed of the Y. M. C. A. in a fast game by a score of 4 to 3. The Y. M. C. A. had strengthened their team and they played a fast game but they were unable to stem the tide of the sailors who played a better game in all departments of the game.

Kindel pitched for the Southery and he was steady and on both occasions the passes were costly, but after the second he lightened up and there was no more scoring.

Elcho pitched a fine game for the Y. M. C. A. allowing but five hits but he weakened in the fourth when he was reached for three singles which along with two passes and two errors netted three runs. He got indifferent support at times; Phillips hit well, his three-base hit in the fifth was a fine drive into deep center but he could not get home.

The Southery were up and Porter took first when Gustafson fumbled his grounder; Kennedy sacrificed him to second, Elcho to Hicks; Homer was thrown out by McWilliams and Steers came through with a single that scored Porter; Azbott was thrown out by Elcho. One run.

The Y. M. C. A. scored in their half; McWilliams drew a pass but was nulled trying to steal second; Davis walked; Phillips was thrown out by Kindel; Dow singled and Davis scored when Azbott dropped the throw-in; Dow stole second and went to third on a passed ball but Thomas was thrown out by Douling. One run.

In the second, Poncelet was thrown out by Elcho; Nichol was struck out and Douling was thrown out by Dow. The Y. M. C. A. took the lead; Crutcher singled, he was advanced on Gustafson's sacrifice, and went to third on a passed ball; Hicks drew a pass; Elcho struck out and McWilliams angled going "Craker" and Hicks; Davis struck out. Two runs.

In the third the sailors got one man on; Kindel fled to Cole who had taken Crutcher's place in right and Porter was thrown out by Gustafson; Kennedy singled but he was nulled a minute later trying to steal second.

The Y. M. C. A. failed to score; Phillips singled and stole second, but Dow fled to Steers; Thomas to Homer, and Cole was thrown out by Steers.

The Southery won the game in the fourth; Homer opened with a single; Steers followed suit; Azbott drew a pass and with the bases full Phillips dropped Poncelet's fly to left and Homer scored, but Steers was thrown out at third, Porter to Dow; Nichol struck out, but Douling singled and Azbott and Poncelet scored; Kindel retired the side on a fly to Dow. Three runs.

The Y. M. C. A. went out in order; Gustafson on a ground ball to first; Smith batting for Hicks fled to Homer and Elcho was thrown out by Kindel.

In the fifth Porter was safe on Gustafson's fumble and he was forced at second on Kennedy's grounder to Gustafson; Homer hit to Dow who retired Kennedy at second and Homer stole second but was thrown out trying for third.

The Y. M. C. A. opened their last stand with McWilliams fanning and Davis trying to Nichol; Phillips answered a ball to deep center and made third base but quick recovery saved a home run; Dow however fled to Nichol.

TEACHERS CLAIM UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION

The Elementary teachers of this city, have filed a protest with the Board of Instruction, arising out of the award or rather the failure to award an increase of pay to the elementary teachers. The Board at the last meeting announced that the pay of all teachers had been increased from $50 to $100 each, and this was so of the teachers of the High and Junior High schools as well as the teachers of the Training school, but the Elementary teachers were not so fortunate and only four received an increase.

The teachers at a meeting protested against this and have filed the following protest with the Board, and a special meeting will be called to consider it.

To the Board of Instruction, Portsmouth, N. H.
Whereas, we, the elementary teachers of Portsmouth, fully appreciate the act of your Board in raising the minimum salary of the regular teachers to $700, nevertheless we feel keenly the injustice done to many of the elementary teachers who have given long and faithful service in the schools of Portsmouth, in that their salaries remain the same while those of all the other teachers in the city have been raised.

We protest against this unfair discrimination and respectfully request your honorable Board to reconsider the matter before the end of the present term.

Elementary Teachers of Portsmouth.

SOME STORY IS TOLD BY HAMBY

New York, June 19.—Two train robbers and 13 bank hold-ups was the criminal record admitted today by Gordon Fawcett Hamby, alias J. R. Allen, awaiting trial here for the murder of two men when he robbed a Brooklyn savings bank. Seated in his cell he told the remarkable story of his crimes in an impersonal and dispassionate tone, closing it with a declaration that he had no further interest in life except to be executed as speedily as possible.

ADVISES HUNS TO REJECT TREATY

THE MEN IN CLASS A1

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition, not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely. The bodily functions are impaired, and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is, generally, the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A1. Take GOLD MEDAL HANLEY OIL Capsules periodically, and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be cheerful, your muscles supple, your mind active, and your body capable of hard work. Don't wait until you have been rejected. "Chance" to be a first-class man. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL HANLEY OIL Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Hanley Oil—the kind your great-grandfather used. Two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. Remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL Brand. In three glass sealed packages.

TWO POPULAR AMERICAN OFFICERS

Colditz, June 18.—The two most popular American officers among the Germans in Colditz are Major George Cockrell, assistant provost marshal, and Captain Theodore F. Fleker, in charge of the billeting office which must furnish accommodations for something like eleven hundred officers and thousands of soldiers.

Major Cockrell, whose home is in St. Paul, is in command of more than twelve hundred military police and five to twenty or more Germans pass through his office every day on their way to jail. So the civilians who buy stolen American food and who try to sell cocaine to American soldiers and commit other acts contrary to army regulations Major Cockrell is a most unpopular man.

Something he receives threatening notes and also letters in German with skull and cross bones at the bottom of the page but they do not frighten him in the least. It's all a part of the job, the major says.

Captain Fleker, who lived in Chicago before the war, has been going about Colditz for five months selecting choice billets for generals and other officers and for the soldiers too. And so most all the civilians in Colditz have had a glimpse of Captain Fleker from time to time and they do not like him one bit. Many of them tell him so, in a nice way, of course, each time he comes around.

Every house in the city has been listed in Captain Fleker's office, and he knows how many members there are in each family and when there is a spare bedroom or two handy he takes it over for a general, a colonel, a major, a captain or a lieutenant, according to the furnishings and the location of the house. Being unpopular is incidental to the duties of the billeting officer. But the work appears to agree with him. Since he came to Germany with the Army of Occupation Captain Fleker has gained ten pounds.

ELOPES WITH NEGRO SERVANT

Ayer, June 19.—The reported elopement of Miss Mabel Puffer, a wealthy society woman of the fashionable Sandy Beach section of Ayer, and "Honorary" Hazzard, a Negro charwoman, has stirred the residents of the town into demanding the marriage be stopped.

Miss Puffer and the Negro have made formal application for a marriage license in Concord, N. H., the chief of police of that city says. The five-day limit expires Saturday. Miss Puffer and her Negro sweetheart are staying at a boarding house in Concord and the couple have been seen walking about the streets there it is reported.

Friends of Miss Puffer are astounded that she should have been fascinated by a man of opposite color and of the social scale of Hazzard. It is believed the couple first became acquainted while the Negro was doing chores at her home.

Miss Puffer and Hazzard were reported to have left Ayer last Sunday night together in an automobile. Despite their simultaneous disappearance, an announcement was given to a rumor that Miss Puffer who is 48 years old, and the Negro, who is 15 years her junior, had eloped, Tuesday, however, the chief of police of Ayer was called on the phone by the Concord, N. H., police chief and told that Mabel Puffer, white, and Arthur Garfield Hazzard, colored, of Ayer, had applied for a marriage license.

Legally there was no interference possible by the Concord chief, but it was suggested that relatives of Miss Puffer take action. It is not known, however, whether her relatives can be reached to take action. She has a brother an army captain who is still in France. The entire town is demanding that the marriage be stopped.

Miss Puffer is a well-educated woman and is well known as a reader. She attended the public schools of Ayer and took up education in Boston. A few years ago her father, a prominent citizen of Ayer for many years, died, leaving her $15,000 in cash and valuable property in the town. She is said also to be the owner of valuable property in New Hampshire.

Hazzard is also well known in the town because of the fact that he earns his living doing chores about the homes of many white families. He is a leader in the colored colony and conducted the "peace festival" of the Ayer Negroes following the armistice. He is also known as the champion wood-sawer of the town.

BREAKS LEG WHEN MACHINE SKIDS ON THE HIGHWAY

Motorcycle Falls on Rider on Maplewood Avenue.

Byron Hardman of Somersworth was quite badly injured on Wednesday afternoon after quitting work at the Atlantic shipyard. Hardman operates a motorcycle back and forth from his home and Freeman's Point and was turning from Cutts street to Maplewood avenue when the machine skidded on the oily highway causing it to fall on his body. He sustained a fracture of the right leg and was otherwise bruised and cut. He was removed to the Portsmouth hospital.

FIREMEN PICK BERLIN FOR THE CONVENTION ON SEPTEMBER 24

Portsmouth and Laconia Made Bid for the Gathering But Were Not Considered.

At the annual meeting of the executive committee of the N. H. State Firemen's Association held at the Central fire station at Manchester on Wednesday it was decided to hold the annual convention and celebration at Berlin, Sept. 24. Laconia and Portsmouth made a request for this convention but Berlin had it all bottled up. The Chamber of Commerce and city government were strongly behind the movement and thus Berlin is honored for the second time.

Ex-Assistant Engineer J. M. Varrell of this city, a member of the board, presented the request for Portsmouth but the other delegates claimed that Portsmouth having had this convention three times, had done its share and might be considered next year. It is understood that Portsmouth was really not unanimous for the gathering to be held here this year.

THE ALDRICH MEMORIAL

The Thomas Bailey Aldrich Memorial at Portsmouth, N. H., will open on June 23 for its twelfth season. Each year since the Memorial was dedicated in 1908 has shown a steadily increasing number of visitors, the registry book of 1918 showing a larger number than for any previous year. The uniqueness of the Nutter House as a restoration and the fine collection of literary treasures gathered in it makes appeal to a constantly widening public whose feet turn toward this beautiful New England literary shrine.

NAVAL PRISONERS TO APPEAR

The third of a series of entertainments will be given by the prisoners of the Naval prison, at the Portsmouth Music Hall, on July 1st, 1919.

It will be known as the "Summer Entertainment" the main part of which will consist of an old time Minstrel Show. An original one-act farce entitled "Crooks," and the familiar plantation scene enacted wholly by the colored prisoners will make up the second part of the performance.

In addition to the above, there will be a repetition of the pantomime "In Old Madrid," whose pleasing presentation was enjoyed by everyone at its last performance.

Considerable time and effort is now being employed by prisoners in repairs, and in the construction of new scenic effects. The price of admission will be $1.00, .75 and .50, plus the war tax. Tickets may be procured from the enlisted personnel at the prison, also at Green's Drug Store, and at Russell's Music Store. The box office will be open on and after June 27th, from 10 a. m. until 8 p. m. daily.

THIRTEEN MISSING FROM THE U. S. S. PITTSBURG

Total Rewards of $650 Sent Out by the Ship's Captain.

Whether or not 13 will prove an unlikely number for the missing members of the crew of the U. S. S. Pittsburg depends on the action of the police and other matters.

When the ship sailed from Portsmouth on Wednesday the ship's company was just that number shy and it is apparent that the missing Gobs did not care for the proposed two-year cruise in foreign waters. Anyhow, 13 of them are gone and Capt. Todd of the ship has posted deserters' notices and total rewards of $650.

The men are from all parts of the country. Two of them enlisted in this city.

ALLOW MONEY FOR WIDOW AND CHILDREN OF DEAD FIREMAN

Father Was Killed by Explosion of Chemical Engine
Tank in March.

At the meeting of the executive board of the New Hampshire State Firemen's Association held at Manchester on Wednesday, the case of the late Michael E. Kelley, a permanent fireman in the Manchester fire department was taken up by the delegates and disposed of as follows: His widow was granted the sum of $1200 and six of his eight children allowed $150 per week until they become of age.

The case of the late Manchester fireman was the first of its kind in the state which the Relief Association had to deal with.

He was a permanent man attached to a chemical engine and was killed in March, 1919, by the explosion of one of the engine tanks while in the performance of his duties.

LOCAL COMPANIONS VISIT EXETER WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Constitution Circle, C. of P., of this city and about 50 members from the Dover Circle, visited Swampscott Circle of Exeter last evening by special invitation when a class of 40 was initiated. The state officers were present at the gathering.

At the conclusion of the meeting the visitors were served a fine banquet by the Swampscott Circle, the menu including grape fruit, creamed chicken, hot mashed potatoes, green peas, rolls, pickles, assorted cake, ice cream and coffee.

The visitors made the trip to and from Exeter in automobiles and much enjoyed the occasion and the hospitality shown them by Swampscott Circle.

NOTICE

A canvas of the business section is now being made by the committee to raise funds for the Fourth of July celebration. If for any reason the collector does not reach you, contributions may be made to E. H. Baker at the Chamber of Commerce.

This celebration is to be in the nature of a "Welcome Home" for the local boys who have served in the World War and also a tribute to the Civil War and Spanish War Veterans. Each citizen of Portsmouth should have a share in the celebration.

Chairman of Committee on Funds.

THE OLD HANDTUB T. W. PRIEST HAS BEEN RENAMED

Is Now the Rupert H. Baxter in Honor of the Maine Senator.

The old handtub T. W. Priest recently sold to the Bath Veterans Firemen's Association by the Veterans Association of this city, has been renamed the Rupert H. Baxter in honor of the Maine senator who is an honorary member of the Bath organization.

A dispatch says the old machine has taken part in a number of the musters of the New England Veteran Firemen's League and has been chased among the top-liners in the list of competing tubs at various meets. The members of the Bath association are holding frequent tests and it is expected that the Rupert H. Baxter will be playing better than 200 feet before the summer is over.
